Dear Families,

What a fantastic and busy week we've had at Frankston East Primary School!

Prep-2 Pancake Day

On Friday, the delicious smell of pancakes filled the air as our Prep-2 students celebrated Pancake Day! It was heartwarming to see so many happy faces enjoying their pancakes, sharing laughs, and spending time together in such a fun and relaxed setting. A big thank you to all the staff and volunteers who made the morning a success.

Book Week Parade

Yesterday, the school came alive with colour, creativity, and character as we held our annual Book Week Parade. From classic storybook characters to clever homemade costumes, it was a wonderful celebration of literacy and imagination. Thank you to all the families who supported their children in dressing up and fostering a love for reading. The enthusiasm and school spirit were truly on display!

Year 3/4 Camp – Off to The Briars!

This morning, we waved off our excited Year 3/4 students as they headed off on their much-anticipated camp to The Briars. We know they'll have an amazing time connecting with nature, learning new skills, and building friendships. We look forward to hearing all about their adventures when they return.

Fathering Project Event – Next Wednesday 27th August

We're excited to invite all Fathers and positive male role models to our special Fathering

Project event next Wednesday 27th August, from 5:00–6:00pm on the basketball court.

This fun-filled evening will include:

- A sausage sizzle
- A paper-plane making and flying competition
- A special appearance by Rodney Eade, former AFL coach and player

It's a fantastic opportunity to connect with your children in a relaxed, engaging environment. We hope to see as many of you there as possible – bring your best paper-plane designs and your appetite!

Thank you for your continued support and involvement in our school community. We are so proud of the vibrant and inclusive culture we continue to build together.

Kind Regards,

Warren Bull

Principal

Pyjama & Pancake Day!

On Friday the Prep-Grade 2 students celebrated the end of winter by coming to school in their cosy Pjs! They enjoyed pancakes (with butter and jam) that they made themselves. They tasted very yummy! They also watched the movie Frozen in class which is a favourite!

Here are a few pictures from the day! We all can't wait for Pyjama Day next year!

SCHOOL EVENTS

Book Week Parade!

This year's Book Week theme was 'Book an Adventure'. The costumes at FEPS were amazing!

There were lots of familiar characters and everyone did an amazing job with their costumes! We had an excellent family turnout this year, with so many smiling audience members braving the chilly morning to see the kids parade around their costumes! We had a student from each class tell the school all about their favourite book, and awards were given out for best costume and best re-design of a book cover! What a fabulous morning!
