Principal's Message

Dear Frankston East Families,

I'm thrilled to share that last Wednesday's Fathering Project event was a fantastic success! Over 50 dads and positive male role models came together, making it a wonderful opportunity for connection and support within our community. Thank you to everyone who attended and helped make it such a special evening.

Looking ahead, don't forget that the Father's Day Coffee Van will be here tomorrow morning between 8:00 and 9:00 am—perfect timing to grab a warm drink and celebrate the amazing dads in our lives!

Today, FEAST tickets go on sale! Our much-anticipated FEAST event will take place in just two weeks at the George Jenkins Theatre. It promises to be a memorable evening, so be sure to secure your tickets early.

As the weather warms up, a gentle reminder that all students must now wear hats during recess and lunchtime. With melanomas being the leading cause of cancer in 12 to 29-year-olds, it's vital that we all practice good sun safety habits to keep our children protected.

And now, to brighten your day with a little spring humor:

When is the best time to wash your Slinky?

During spring cleaning....

Wishing you all a sunny and safe week ahead!

Warm regards,

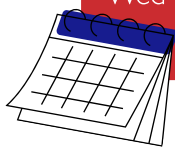

Warren Bull

Principal, Frankston East Primary School
