SCHOOL EVENTS

3/4 Camp at The Briars!

Last Wednesday, 44 excited Year 3/4 students, along with their teachers, set off to The Briars Camp in Mount Martha. We had perfect weather, blue skies and sunshine every day, which made the adventures even better.

From soaring through the air on the giant swing to racing down the flying fox, the students showed courage, teamwork and plenty of smiles. Of course, the camp kitchen was also a highlight, with many students happily lining up for seconds!

A huge thank you goes to our Year 3/4 parents for preparing the students so well and supporting them as they headed off to their very first school camp. We are also incredibly grateful to Miss Cooke, Miss Swinerd, Mr Rolfe, Mr Ennis and Mr Bull whose dedication made the camp such a success.

Finally, a big congratulations to all our students who represented Frankston East Primary with pride and made camp a fun and positive experience for everyone.

Kate Martin - 3/4 Classroom Teacher
